

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law. The law as it now stands has been working quite well. I do not want phone calls from businesses.